THERE IS A RUMOR that our speaker for church on Celebration Sabbath, October 24, who is Pastor Jerry Lutz who lives in the Washington DC area, will be by Skype and projected on our screen. This is not so, he will be here in person and be with us the whole day. I want to thank every one of you who are doing so much for our church to make it look nice. There are many of you involved in sprucing it up and we appreciate what you are doing. The Mexican dinner that is being planned for this event, I can tell you the food is delicious. We just had a trial run of the various dishes on the menu this past Sunday, Aug. 30 and it sure tasted good.

Funds are coming in for this event and we certainly appreciate this. We really do not want to fund this event by taking money out of our reserves in the church budget. Please get the word around to your friends, relatives and whoever you think might have some interest in our church. It is only a few weeks away now. Formal invitations will soon be mailed.

THANK YOU ALL.

Your Committee for the 100th.
