So You'll Know

Weekly News Update

March 21, 2020

Website as Central Communication Point

For those who are online, use the website during the coronavirus shut-down as a central point of communication. Updates will be posted there as well as essential community news. If you haven't already marked the site, do so now. <<portervilleadventist.org>>.

The Elders as your Servants

Please note: The church family has been divided into small groups. Each group will be served by one of our elders. They will be your point person and your connection to church leadership and to your church family during this difficult time. You may expect that the elder who has been assigned your group will be calling you to ask how you are doing, pray with you, and to see if you have any specific needs that you need help with. Don't hesitate to rely upon them. Let them serve you. Let them help you. I assure you that the Elders, together with the deacons and the deaconesses, are eager to serve and will not feel put out if you have needs that you need help with. They will not be pestering you, but they will stay in close touch throughout the duration of the pandemic. Take note of which Elder calls you and if you have any needs that come up communicate those needs to them and the larger community will engage on your behalf.

Online Worship Service and Conference Call Sabbath School

This coming Sabbath, March 21, 2020, we will be hosting both a Sabbath school class and a simplified church service.
